

COOKING CLASS

Learn how to cook traditional Moroccan dishes and how to combine flavors with a half-day cooking lesson in Marrakech, in the privacy of your riad. Prepare authentic dishes to savor with a meal at the end of the lesson.

Our manager will be at your disposal and you can agree with her, according to your tastes, which traditional local dishes you would like to taste and learn how to cook.

With 24 hours notice, you can go shopping together in the medina, at the market and buy the ingredients directly from the shopkeeper, including the aromas of spices and fresh mint. You will then return to the riad, where our responsible will teach you how to dose and cook the most delicious Moroccan dishes, learning even a few Arabic words while having fun. When finished, you can enjoy what you have prepared. Concluding with the traditional mint tea.
